

FitSM® Foundation - accredited training with exam

FitSM® is a free and lightweight standards family aimed at facilitating service management in IT service provision.

The FitSM® standard and associated certification scheme are maintained by the ITEMO (IT Education Management Organisation) FitSM® working group. The FitSM® standard was initially developed through the FedSM Project, funded by the European Commission.

FitSM® is designed to be compatible with ISO/IEC 20000-1 (requirements for a service management system) international standard and ITIL®. The FitSM® process model, requirements, recommended activities and role model targets a lightweight implementation. Equally, it can be applied as a first step to introducing full ITSM, i.e. applying ITIL® good practices and/or achieving compliance against ISO/IEC 20000-1.

Purpose of the training

The training is addressed to:

- Managers and employees of IT organizations planning to improve internal processes based on the best practices of FitSM®, employees of companies providing IT services
- People who want to improve their qualifications in IT service management and pass the FitSM® Foundation exam

Benefits of completing the training

FitSM® training and certification will:

- Support organizations in achieving the first step towards implementing the full set of IT Service Management processes
- Enhance an organization's provision of IT services using a concise, lightweight and achievable ITSM standard
- Help organizations apply effective ITSM processes in federated environments, where services are managed in cooperation with competing or disparate organizations
- Implement the foundations of effective ITSM processes in instances where it is not necessary to implement detailed processes prescribed by other frameworks (e.g. ISO/IEC 20000 and ITIL®)
